Let's get you started!

Below is a questionnaire that I developed, in order to get you and I on the same page of where your business stands in achieving your goals. Take your time, answer each question honestly and truthfully and send it back to me. We will then sit down in person or over the phone and develop a plan that will grow your product, brand, business and service into the final creation that you desire. Join me, Aaron Bacot and Allons-Y! As we guide your business into the future you dream of.

Allons-Y LLC Small Business Consulting Client Questionnaire

- 1 What is your company's current status? Are you operational?
- 2 What are your company's key products, who are your target customers, who are your key competitors?
- 3 What value does your company provide that makes it stand out from others like it in the same industry?
- 4 What are some of the major challenges your company is facing? In what way would do you see Allons-Y helping to improve current outcomes?
- 5 How often do these challenges affect your company's production?
- 6 How long would you say that your total process takes you? Give answer in terms of days and weeks on average.
- 7 What are some changes you would like to see?
- 8 Where do you see your company in the future? Do you want to expand to a larger brick and mortar location?
